Programs

University staff are largely involved in international research and development cooperation. In this respect, projects of the Horizon 2020 were of particular importance. Among them, there are the most prestigious projects of the European Research Council (ERC), which are currently the most competitive grant system in the world.

The University and its components are also largely involved in the Ministry of Education, Youth and Sports programs to support scientific research, international cooperation and further into the Erasmus+ programs.

Do not hesitate to click through the options we offer and if you are interested in anything or find another suitable challenge that we can help you with, write to us!