
Jean Monnet Modules

Short-term education programs (courses) in EU studies. These may be general or introductory courses related to EU affairs, specialized lessons on EU development, or fully-recognized summer or intensive courses. the duration of the module is at least 40 teaching hours per academic year - classes can take the form of group consultations, lectures, seminars. But it can not be just an individual consultation.

The duration of the project is up to 3 years.

The maximum financial support is €30 000 (75% of the total costs).

Funding is based on a combination of unit cost scales and flat-rate financing. Funding is intended for the cost of teaching and additional costs.

Dissemination of results:

- At least 1 reviewed article
- Participation in dissemination and information events at national and European level
- Organizing events with policymakers
- Spreading the results of your activities by organizing seminars or lectures
- Networking with other Jean Monnet chairs, module coordinators, centers of excellence and supported institution